

Alumnus of the Month

Name: Anne Suhling

Nationality: German

Schools/Universities you studied at: IGC Bremen (University of Applied Sciences Bremen)/ University of Herfordshire

Year of Completion: 2013

Specialisation: International Human Resource Management

Job Title: Project Manager

Employer: BVL International

Location: Bremen, Germany

What you liked about the Schools/Universities you studied at:

In Bremen, I enjoyed the constellation of the class (25 Students from around 15 nationalities) as well as the university-organised events (trip to Berlin, Christmas party etc.) most. Moreover, I liked the projects in the studies. In Hatfield, I enjoyed the small group (sometimes only two students) and the very close information exchange with the professors as well as the large offer of online study books. Moreover, I liked that my English improved during my stay in England.

What you do in your job?

I work as project manager in the content/knowledge/research department of BVL International, the German Logistics Association. I am responsible for several (event) projects such as the forum spare parts logistics and the forum chemistry logistics as well as other (international) forums and conferences. Also, I am part of a team organising the annual International Supply Chain Conference in Berlin. Moreover, I am responsible for diverse working groups and the scientific board of BVL International.

Whom you would like to connect with in the Alumni Network?

I would like to connect to other alumni, current students, professors and other professionals around the globe.
